RESUME OF EDWARD JOHN KENNEDY

E. John Kennedy, M.D., was born in Keokuk, Iowa, on 12 November 1936. He attended Grinnell College in Grinnell, Iowa, as a pre-med student. He then attended the University of Iowa College of Medicine and received the M.D. degree in 1962.

He completed his internship at St. Luke's Hospital in Duluth, Minnesota. Following internship he entered the United States Air Force directly in the School of Aerospace Medicine at Brooks Air Force Base in Texas. He completed two years of active duty as a rated Flight Surgeon at Lajes Field in Azores, Portugal.

In 1966 he entered the Mayo Graduate School of Medicine at the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minnesota, studying internal medicine. He was at Mayo until 1968, and then spent a year as Senior Medical Resident at Santa Clara Valley Medical Center in San Jose, California.

In 1969 he entered private practice in internal medicine, joining the Thorngate Medical Group in Monterey, California.

In July 1972 he joined the faculty of the Naval Postgraduate School, Monterey, California, where he is teaching aviation physiology in the Aviation Safety Programs.

He is a member of the A.M.A., C.M.A., Monterey County Medical Society, American Heart Association, Aerospace Medical Association, and is Chairman of Medical Section of both hospitals on the Monterey Peninsula.
